RAIL TOURISM: SOUTH AFRICA'S SLOW-MOTION TRAIN WRECK

Paul Ash, an avid Steam in Action member, recently posted the following article on the Times Live website:

"Hello all,

I have written a post on dining car Protea's demise and made mention of the Outeniqua Choo-Tjoe's imminent steam-up. Please feel free to comment on the post and spread it around. Also, if there are any matters of fact, please let me know right away.
